An aerial photograph of the New York City skyline during sunset. The Empire State Building is the central focus, with its iconic spire reaching towards the sky. The city is densely packed with various skyscrapers and buildings, some of which are illuminated with warm golden light. In the background, the Hudson River and the New York Harbor are visible, with the Statue of Liberty and other islands in the distance. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, indicating the time is either early morning or late afternoon. A white rectangular box with a black border is superimposed over the center of the image, containing the text "ANY QUESTIONS??".
